

Stewardship of Time with Scrip

Use Gift Cards as Cash

No Extra Cost – Dollar for Dollar Value

Helps Our Parish School

What Is Scrip?

Scrip is simply gift cards/certificates for places you routinely go to such as:

- Grocery stores
- Gas Stations
- Pharmacies
- Restaurants
- Department stores

How Do I Buy Scrip?

Tell the scrip cashier what you want or fill out a SCRIP TO GO form located at the scrip table and give to the scrip cashier with your payment. The scrip cashier will give you the cards you have marked on the SCRIP TO GO form. We can only accept cash or checks payable to Our Lady of Fatima.

How Do I Use Scrip?

At the store, restaurant, gas station, and even online, pay for your items using your gift card(s).

When And Where Can I Purchase Scrip?

After weekend Masses in the Vestibule of the Church and during the week in the Parish office.

Where Can I Use Scrip?

There are hundreds of places to use scrip. We keep over 50 of the most popular cards in our SCRIP TO GO inventory including Chipotle, Outback, Speedway, CVS, Wendy's, and Kohl's and MORE!

Who Do I Contact with Questions?

Lisa Lucas (304) 710-6309 or scrip@olofatima.org or the parish office.
